

"Put Your Best Face Forward"

DON'S SPORT VEHICLES, is the recipient of the monthly "Put Your Best Face Forward" award presented by the City of Perry.

Owner Don Fulton, founded the company in the Detroit-area in 1968, and 10-years ago opened the Perry store located at 130 S. Main Street, in uptown Perry.

Although the facility is commonly known as the "dune buggy shop," Don's Sport Vehicles specializes in internet sales of various types of equipment and supplies for other vehicles, including:

Bugsandbuggies.com, the premier online source for dune buggy parts; Eshocks.com, one of the world's largest distributors of Bilstein shock absorbers providing high end suspensions for most vehicles, cars, trucks and motorhomes; and Egauges.com, also one of the largest distributors of VDO, Autometer, ISSPRO, Classic Instruments and other prominent and high quality gauge companies.

Don's Sport Vehicles sells to customers throughout the world, providing gauges for automotive, marine and industrial use.

City Councilwoman Jo Anne O'Berry (third from right) recently presented the traveling trophy to Fulton and his wife Linda (right) while some of the employees looked on, including (no particular order): Danny Parmalee, Chuck Swartz, Paul Kollek, Dan Newcom and Jason Moles. Theresa and Erika Kollek were not available for the photo.

Judging for "Put Your Best Face Forward," is based on overall appearance, clean sidewalks and windows, window presentation, flower displays (weeded and watered) and absence of trash. Don's is also a strong supporter of community activities.

As this month's winner, Don's Sport Vehicles will have the traveling trophy displayed in the business for one month.
